

Wed., Jan. 2, 2013

Jordan,

Congratulations to you and Chloe for your accomplishment in this contest. I'm very glad to know you realize there is a world out there beyond the athletic arena. Please extend my congratulations to your other classmates besides Chloe; Eva Smith, Jackie Kwapisz, Sarah McCarthy and Dasha Jones for their accomplishments as well.

Good luck to you and your classmates in your future endeavors. Keep up the great work.

Sincerely,

Tom Bartos

AKA "Super Fan"

SCHOOL BRIEFS

Lake Shore students win technology competition

SOUTHFIELD — Students in Lake Shore High School business teacher Tasha Candela's class won more than $1,000 in prizes in the Michigan Council of Women in Technology's annual web design contest, held Dec. 8 at Blue Cross Blue Shield's commons. Jordan Kolodziejski and Chloe Jennings earned second place in the advanced category and took home $500; Eva Smith placed fourth in that category, winning $75; Jackie Kwapisz placed first in the beginner category, with a prize of $400; and Sarah McCarthy and Dasha Jones placed fourth and fifth, respectively.

— KRISTYNE E. DEMSKE